

Milbank Becomes the Latest North American Firm to Select 3E from Thomson Reuters Elite

Firm Chooses 3E to Meet Future Needs and Provide Optimal Customer Value

Aug 14, 2017

Thomson Reuters Elite, part of Thomson Reuters Legal, today announced that Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP has selected 3E® as its future finance technology platform, in order to enhance its financial management capabilities. An integral element of the Elite Enterprise Business Management Solution, 3E provides strong workflow and automation capabilities and a scalable foundation built to help firms manage every operational aspect of their business.

Headquartered in New York, Milbank's 660 lawyers service global clients from 12 locations across its global network. 3E will now provide the firm with a long-term solution that is continuously developed and enhanced. The powerful technology behind 3E is set to evolve with Milbank, meeting its needs today and well into the future. Furthermore, Milbank will be using the multi-currency, global reporting capabilities and workflow tools to ensure that the running of its practice is streamlined and improved.

"At Milbank, we are focused on finance technology solutions that enhance client value, support outstanding client service, and facilitate lawyer efficiency. After a thorough evaluation that saw us working closely with the Elite team, we determined that 3E offers the market-leading functionality for our financial and practice management that will enable us to do this," said Mat Rosswood, Chief Financial Officer at Milbank. "We are very excited to evolve our finance technology platform with a solution that can be adapted to meet our exact needs."

3E offers powerful core financial and practice management features and built-in application development capabilities—all seamlessly integrated into one high-performance system. Designed from the ground up on Microsoft®.NET®, 3E provides an integrated development environment that enables firms to become more agile in responding to client needs. A full suite of capabilities is delivered through a consistent web-based user experience that allows lawyers and staff to easily track and manage activity on a multi-office, global scale.
