

Introducing Partner Compensation & Accounting from Thomson Reuters

RAISE YOUR BAR FOR COMPENSATION MANAGEMENT

Many of today's firms handle partner compensation by manually entering data from multiple systems into spreadsheets, which is a cumbersome, inaccurate, and unsecure process. Partner Compensation & Accounting from Thomson Reuters removes the manual burden by providing a streamlined solution that automatically imports data and maps it to your firm's specific needs. The result is effective and secure compensation management that maximizes partner retention and recruitment.

DELIVERING BENEFITS ACROSS THE FIRM

- Eliminate data entry with the Automated Partner Performance Report. Now net income distribution scheduling statement generation can happen within minutes.
- Effectively control access to key data with minimal effort thanks to security automation for users and groups
- Benefit from automated GL information from 3E[®] and automated compensation statements. You can focus on handling the exceptions rather than manual data entry.
- Work in your comfort zone with the full power and flexibility of Microsoft[®] Excel[®] to manage exceptions and nuances
- Take full advantage of valuable committee time with the Partner Performance Report showing historical trends and notes
- Maximize partner satisfaction with self-service compensation statements, partner share report, and email notifications
