

3E ADVANCED REPORTING

COMMON LAW FIRM BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE CHALLENGES

- Analysts can't easily access the data they need, when they need it
- Administrators don't have tools to send BI reports efficiently
- Management doesn't have access to up-to-date BI data

EASILY CAPTURE A POWERFUL LOOK INTO YOUR BUSINESS

The market today is constantly changing, and business models are more complex than ever. Firms are faced with new challenges and customer demands that are making it increasingly harder to maintain profit margins. To remain successful, you need tools to manage, measure, and provide a meaningful look into your current operations. And you need those tools to adapt as quickly as the demands change. 3E Advanced Reporting™, a powerful 3E® Business Intelligence tool and part of Thomson Reuters Elite's complete end-to-end Enterprise Business Management Solution, delivers on both.

Built on a powerful dynamic data store (DDS) framework, Advanced Reporting expands on the existing capabilities of 3E to provide faster, more flexible reporting that can

HOW 3E ADVANCED REPORTING BOOSTS FIRM PERFORMANCE

- Analysts access all BI data in a single database with advanced analytics at your fingertips
- Administrators distribute BI reports faster without compromising security
- Management accesses near real-time BI data from anywhere, thanks to 3E's Dynamic Data Store grow as your firm grows. It's now easier to create and distribute reports when they're needed to those who need them. Customization options allow users to modify reports to meet specific needs. And the solution actually grows with your business and its users to continually keep up with your changing needs.

Advanced Reporting was developed with the analyst, administrator, and management in mind. In doing so, we have created a solution that makes it easy to find the reports you need, schedule report distribution, and modify and create new reports. You can bring your data to life by choosing from more than 30 out-of-the box reports and close to 200 subreports. Match your style by modifying the existing reports or easily develop your own creations.
